

JUDY CHAPMAN – ASSOCIATE

Judy Chapman, a specialist in Diversity, Workplace Harassment Prevention, Leadership Development, and Career Planning, has over 15 years of experience in Human Resources, and Training and Development consulting. She has worked extensively in both the private and public sectors in Canada, the U.S., Barbados, and Mexico, and is dedicated to the performance improvement of individuals, teams, and organizations.

Judy has been an associate at Graybridge Malkam since 2003, and has delivered multiple diversity sessions for clients in the telecommunications, manufacturing, banking and finance sectors. Prior to this, Judy worked extensively with major investment companies, banks, associations of finance professionals and retail organizations, developing and delivering diversity training and individual coaching for corporate leaders.

In her work for Graybridge Malkam, Judy has:

- Customized and facilitated training programs on Diversity and Respect in the Workplace for a global manufacturing company.
- Designed and delivered full-day Diversity Training for managers, and half-day executive sessions for senior leaders and non-managers at a major Canadian communications company.
- Designed and delivered Diversity and Respectful Workplace Training for employees in the private client services department of a leading insurance management company.
- Designed and facilitated Diversity Awareness sessions for a newly-established Diversity Council at a major Canadian communications company.

A graduate of Queen's University, Judy has augmented her professional development with certificate study in Adult Education at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (O.I.S.E). She is currently a member of the Centre for Staff Team Development (C.S.T.D.).

Participant Feedback:

“Judy is very competent and engaging in the delivery of the training models, and is a subject matter expert in her field of expertise. Feedback from employees who have participated in the training sessions continues to be very positive. Judy has been very professional and a pleasure to work with.”

“Judy Chapman has provided highly professional training services to 3M Canada during the past three years. Training programs were developed in partnership with 3M for Diversity and Respect in the Workplace. The training was designed and customized specifically for the needs of 3M Canada. Judy is very competent and engaging in the delivery of the training models, and is a subject matter expert in her field of expertise.”

“Judy was knowledgeable and responded very professionally to all difficult questions.”